

Union Apprenticeships = Real Opportunity

Tamara Mitchell

Journey person
Sheet Metal Workers Local 28
Completed apprenticeship in 2011
Bronx resident

75%

of our union
apprentices
live in NYC

Alejandro Obando

1st Year Apprentice
Electrical Workers Local 3
Queens resident

65%

of our local apprentices
are minorities

Union apprenticeships provide 2-5 years of industry sponsored training in the skills needed to work safely and compete for long-term employment. Some apprenticeships even include college credit and an associate's degree.

Building and Construction Trades Council of Greater New York

Real opportunity involves years of continuing education and access to jobs that pay middle class wages with health insurance and retirement security. New York City's building trades unions offer all that and more.

GARY LA BARBERA, PRESIDENT
WWW.NYCBUILDINGTRADES.ORG

Ainsley Atwell

1st Year Apprentice
NYC District Council of Carpenters
US Air Force Reservist
Brooklyn resident

This is what union construction looks like.
Shouldn't it be what all construction looks like?